

Mr. Duckett

9 August 1967

STATINTL 1. [ ] called this morning and anticipates that the President may decree substantial cuts which would seriously affect our program planning, etc. He is interested in seeing that our planning structure provides the means and flexibility for the development of alternatives in absorbing these kind of cuts.

2. I told him that I thought we would be in pretty good shape in the future and we have made good progress in the last few weeks in pinning down program elements, etc. I will discuss this a little more fully with John and [ ] this afternoon.

STATINTL

3. From the sound of things, this may be rather rough to absorb.
